

Index for the Appendices

Appendix A1: The Eastern District questionnaire with unweighted data and including those with felony convictions ineligible for jury service.

Appendix A2: The Eastern District data weighted by the number of adult household residents for land line interviews and with ineligible convicted felons removed from the sample.

Appendix B1: The Middle District questionnaire with unweighted data and including those with felony convictions ineligible for jury service.

Appendix B2: The Middle District data weighted by the number of adult household residents for land line interviews and with ineligible convicted felons removed from the sample.

Appendix C: A statement of the survey procedures used by Promark Research, the firm that conducted the interviewing.

Appendix D: Census demographic benchmarks to compare to the survey benchmarks to validate the survey results.

Appendix E: An enumeration of the stories about the Pilot Flying J criminal prosecution that appeared in the Knoxville Sentinel and the Nashville Tennessean, including the date, the headline, and text describing each story.

Appendix F: The dates of the survey and call disposition codes

Appendix G: Curriculum Vitae of Declarant Dr. Kent Tedin